Questions

1. Justify the statement “Presenting the maximum amount of truth to the maximum number of people is the historical and biblical goal of evangelism” (pp. 33-38)
2. What are some ways that a me-centered gospel differs from a God-centered gospel (pp.36-37)?
3. How can the truth “God loves sinners” become a half-truth and mislead people? What other parts of the gospel are often shrunken or neglected (pp.39-41)?
4. What is method-centered evangelism? Why is this approach prone to manipulating people (pp.41-42)?
5. What are three negative effects of me-centered evangelism (p.44)?
6. Summarize Tim Keller’s answer to the person who couldn’t believe people are going to hell for not believing in Jesus (pp.47-49).
7. Do you think the author has misstated his analysis of contemporary evangelism? Give examples for your view from the book or from your experiences (pp. 46-52).
